The Road Ahead

John Reed, President

Looking Ahead to LPR's 50th...

Plans are ramping up for LPR's 50 anniversary celebration at a fast pace. Kris Vanacore, the event chair, hauls around several folders that grow fatter every time she presents the latest on what to expect come the end of March. Kris and friends have dedicated untold hours and time since early last year to ensure that the 50th anniversary of LPR will one to remember. Anytime you're ready to register, either on Motorsportreg.com or with Kris, the 50th anniversary gala is ready for you. Check out the continuing information in your Prieta POST and online email blasts. The info is there and remember - March 28th is not that far away!

Stepping Up to the Plate...

Last year Lisa Radding, LPR's Co-Vice President, came forward and volunteered to be our Social Media Chair, unfortunately this year with an increasing work load and school she has stepped down. I want to thank Lisa for her time and efforts during 2019, especially when we needed someone to fill this media position. Lisa hasn't left the building as yet, she continues on this year as Vice President. Volunteers... gotta' love 'em!

Stepping up to take Lisa's place is anything-you-need-you-got-it volunteer Peter Ridgway. Peter is our POST Advertising Chair as well as Tech Chair. The crown of Social Media now rests upon his shoulders, his head's in there somewhere. When you read the ongoing mid-month blasts and other missives thank Peter, these are coordinated with LPR's Activities Director Bob Morgan, who also deserves a pat on the back, any lower and he may pat back!

Finally...

Have you as yet caught the 'Did You know' message in the last few POSTs? This is a creation of Anne Roth whose thinking is the more you know about your club the more you know about your club. These informative tidbits of information doesn't take up much space, but it does let the sunshine in on how complete LPR has become. Speaking of sunshine, the sun is currently shining after a few days of drizzly weather, sounds like to good time to settle in behind the wheel and we'll see you...down the road.

Gung Hay Fat Choy! Happy Lunar New Year, year of the Rat!

The Rat is the first Chinese zodiac animal of twelve, and this year is a special one of “renewal” because a new zodiac cycle starts (this only comes every 60 years). This year should be strong, prosperous and lucky for most zodiac animals.

I usually don’t watch much TV but this month will be different. Let’s hope the 49ers win the Superbowl! I am personally looking forward to the half-time show and to see what catchy ads come up. Go Niners! (Mandy is ready with her vintage Jerry Rice jersey)

This is also awards’ show season with the Emmys, Golden Globes, Grammys and Oscars. I enjoy the Grammys for the music performances and also the fashion--this is where celebrities tend to show off their outrageous outfits and bling!

Speaking of bling, did you notice our special 50th Anniversary logo created just for this year? We will be celebrating with a Gala in March--hope you can make it (you should have received a flier/invite in the mail). In the meantime, you can order some customized Lands’ End clothing (with either logo) in our Goodie Store.

You may have noticed that I’ve changed the Prieta POST cover a bit as I want to have some consistency with our website. We also recently upgraded the website so it should run more efficiently!

Any feedback or comments are welcome. See you in March!

Waiting for the gift exchange amidst lovely holiday decor

It's Beginning to Look A Lot Like Christmas

by Emilie Highley

The festivities began from the moment we pulled up to the Hallock's (with Deb & Kevin Bennett). Lights and garland galore! AND, that was just the outside!

Inside...OMG, was magnificent...a 7+ foot tree...truly a 'crown jewel' – adorned with crowns from every country that Diana, Hal and Diana's sister had visited – each with a story. Stockings were hung from the chimney with care. The Dicken's Village was carefully laid out on top of their China hutch (Diana told me that their grandson arranged it all). The Village looked like a picture from a Thomas Kinkadee painting (he was the painter of lights).

What a spread!

So much for the décor...let's focus on the appetizers. WOWZA! Deb and I asked if we could help. Diana and Lin's response, 'Please – this kitchen is off limits.' Deb and I quickly moved on. Hal was busy BBQ'ing the chicken satay. Their patio was set up as a buffet...chafing dishes for the array of appetizers...cheeseburger sliders, chicken satay with peanut sauce (homemade – compliments of Diana), bourbon meatballs, mini corn muffins, potato salad, broccoli salad, and a fruit platter – Diana and Lin outdid themselves.

The 'masses' began to arrive – Bonnie & Gerry Lund, Gary Goekel, Bob & Deb Frosthalm, John & Angie Reed, Ken & June Iles, Homer & Cindy

So many gifts!

Pitner, Bob & Karen Morgan. Kathy Musser was collecting the money while Johnny relaxed with a glass of wine! Jim Metz was busy bringing appetizers from the kitchen to the patio, while Hal was again a gracious host, pouring wine for everyone.

Gifts were placed on, and around the coffee table...SO much to choose from!

Everyone visited, ate and drank, laughed and told stories for a while. Diana and Lin were busy replenishing the sliders as they ‘disappeared’ off the appetizer table. Who are we missing??? Peter and Jacqueline – are they lost???

Our hosts called the group together – now that is a job in itself so Debbie whistled which got everyone’s attention.

Time for the gift exchange (YIPPEEEEEEE...I love gifts!). Diana explained the ‘rules’ of the gift exchange. Rules: everyone gets a number, #1 goes first and selects a gift – opens it...lots of “ooooohhh’s and aaaahhh’s”...#2 is next and can either steal the gift from #1, or pick one of their own. Get the picture???? Gifts can be ‘stolen’ twice before it is ‘frozen’. Gerry Lund had #1 (last year, Bonnie had

#1 – coincidence????). I believe that Bob Frosthalm had the next number and he picked the Breakfast Sandwich Maker (definitely a gift that every household should have ???). Debbie Bennett picked the Nutcracker candle holder and candle. I stole that one from Debbie – adds to my collection. Jim Metz choose the home brew beer (brewed by Homer Pitner). Up to this point we seemed to be polite and playing pretty fair until someone (Karen Morgan), picked a warm and cuddly blanket – Ken Iles wanted it, but it was stolen by someone else, then

Bob Frosthalm showing off the sandwich maker.(please steal this!)

Karen thanks hubby Bob Morgan for stealing back her blanket

Bob Morgan stole it and it was ‘frozen’ – Karen Morgan you are the lucky one! Johnny Musser’s turn and with careful guidance from Kathy stole a gift, which he quickly lost! Another ‘hit’ was the scratchers which traded hands a number of times. Diana Hallock stole them from Kevin Bennett who lost them to WHOEVER (I lost track of them). The gifts of wine, beer and port were in demand and stolen a number of times. . . Soon all the gifts were gone. . .no more steals. . . hopefully everyone was happy!

Dessert time – and what desserts were Yess! Adding this to my collection!

Hal Hallock, “How did you know this was on my list?”

brought...cookies, cakes, and more. YUMMY!!!!

OOPS, did I fail to mention that when the gift exchange was going on, Peter and Jacqueline walked in – they had the time wrong so were over an hour late!!!! Peter – read the POST!

Lisa Radding and her friend Brad came by long enough to have a bite to eat before going to another party. Lisa thanked the Hallock’s and Metz’s for an awesome afternoon. In lieu of a gift, the hosts chose to have a donation made to the Club’s Benevolent Fund – thank you Diana, Hal, Lin and Jim! President John Reed made announcements for upcoming events.

The afternoon slowly came to an end (probably because we ran out of wine – after all, we are the Good Time Region).

Time for tea

Many thanks again to Hal, Diana, Jim and Lin...may your Holidays be filled with happiness and love.

Debbie Bennett and her baby

all and to all a good night!

Kevin didn't know that his scratchers would be stolen soon

Rallye! Really?

Part 1

By Bob Frosthalm

Shortly after joining LPR in May of 2008 several long-time members encouraged me to reach back into ancient history (The mid 1960s) when I was very active in the Bay Area Car Rallye scene. In 2009 I mustered up the time, energy and memories to write a gimmick event for the club and that led a photo rallye, a scavenger hunt rallye, a poker rallye and a distance accuracy rallye.

For 2020 I have reserved 3 dates for Rallyes; May 16th, June 20th and October 10th for Rallyes.

At last night's GTG Soup Night I was talking with Doris & Russ Britschgi who are in charge of tours. They were looking at the LPR calendar and didn't want to conflict with the Rallye dates. The reason is simple. A Rallye is basically a simple tour with a game attached to it. Official "Tours" like those Doris and Russ may be organizing will likely take you to more exotic places on more interesting roads. A Rallye will navigate you from one place to another while you engage in a game (some more complicated than others).

While many of us "old timers" have had Rallye blood flowing in our veins for decades, I thought it would be appropriate to offer a little insight into this aspect of Porsche Sport to those who are unfamiliar with the goings on.

Our first event will be a Poker Rallye honoring Steve Mitchell, a very dear member of the club who lost his battle with cancer a little over 2 years ago. This event recognizes everything Steve loved; driving a Porsche, drinking wine, playing poker and hosting a GTGs with his beloved wife Jackie. We've got it covered in this first event. The Steve Mitchell Memorial Poker and Wine Tasting Rallye ends with a GTG hosted by Jackie Mitchell.

What's a Poker Rallye?

You don't need to be a poker player to participate. At the start of the event, each participant will draw two cards from a deck. We will drive to the first winery for a tasting when you will draw a second card from the deck. Then on to the next winery (there will be two and then the GTG will be at the third one) when another card will be drawn. At the end of the event you will have a 5 card poker hand with the highest hand winning a nice prize.

Not into poker or tasting wine? Not a problem. You can sign up for just the GTG (it will be a midafternoon event) and help us all celebrate the memory of Steve Mitchell.

Rallye #2 will be a near recreation of the first Rallye ever created in LPR nearly 50 years ago... A Santa Cruz area based photo rallye. More on that another time in a future edition of the POST...

Until then... CHEERS !

Happy Chinese New Year!

Chinese New Year will be celebrated starting on January 25th. According to the Chinese lunar calendar, it is the Year of the Rat. Chinese New Year dates vary between each year, but usually occur between late January and the end of February in a Gregorian calendar. The dates change every year because the celebration is based on the Chinese lunar calendar and based on the 12 Zodiac animals so the celebration is a cycle repeated every 12 years.

People born in the year of the Rat are instinctive, acute and alert in nature which makes them to be brilliant businessmen. They can always react properly before the worst circumstances take place. They are also sophisticated and popular in social interaction. They are sanguine and very adaptable, being popular with others. Those born in the years 2020, 2008, 1996, 1984, 1972, 1960, and 1948 etc. are Rats.

Here is wishing everyone a Gung Hay Fat Choy and a prosperous 2020!

Concours Judges School and Prep Clinic:

The annual concours judges school and concours prep clinic will be held at Porsche of Livermore on Sunday, March 15th from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm. If you have competed in a region concours and would like to get involved in judging and learn a little more about how cars are judged, this is a must attend event. If you have never attended or participated in a concours this is a great opportunity to learn a little about how to clean and detail your favorite Porsche

The Los Angeles Porsche Weekend February 27- March 1

Do you enjoy “Vintage Porsches”, want to learn about them, and have the opportunity to see and maybe own some rare and unusual Porsche items? The L.A. Porsche Weekend is not to be missed. It’s a four days of non-stop Porsche, in its 37th year, much more than anyone can see and do. <https://www.lalitanatomyshow.com/> See Related Events and Shop tours links and hotel information.

Saturday morning’s Literature and Toy Show is so much more than the title implies, it’s a: “Trade Show”, Swap Meet, “Gathering of the Faithful”, and a place to learn and acquire “stuff”. Ranging from the earliest wartime Porsche/VW memorabilia, to Race and Press of more recent years. If you want to learn from many of the experts about Porsche many with an historical viewpoint, this is the place to be. Parts suppliers such as Stoddard / NLA will be there with displays and be able to answer questions. 300+ tables of wares,

The Shop Tours are amazing, there is a bus tour available, but a car with a good GPS is best in my opinion. They range from San Fernando Valley to Southern Orange County. Some of the places not to miss: John Willhoit’s, Friday’s Lunch, European Collectables Saturday Evening Party, and Jim Liberty’s Saturday Happy Hour.

In addition there is the Porsche Experience in Carson: the 917 restaurant is open for lunch and dinner, Happy Hour at the bar upstairs overlooks the track, and then there is the restoration shop, display area and factory store. Or schedule a time for on track driving.

Sunday is an All Porsche Swap Meet, car show in Anaheim, go early, 7am isn’t too early. Parts, cars, and German Food at the Phoenix Club.

Chairperson Reports:

Advertising - Peter Ridgway. All advertisers have been billed for 2020. Total billing was $9692.91. Some have been given plans to pay with 2 or 3 payments. This is how I got them to upgrade from quarter page to half page ads. Margie has the list and will report as their checks roll in. I will continue to monitor and will "tweak" them if their payments are late.

Autocross – Anne Roth, Dave Dunwoodie. Zone 7 will be putting on an AX Instructor Training Class on March 7th at the Robert Livermore Community Center from 9am to 1pm, and lunch afterward for further discussions. Zone 7 would like the regions to pay for their potential instructors for attending. Costs are $375 for the room, plus some refreshments. I'd like approval to spend up to $200 for our members that want to attend the class. Motion made to approve up to $200 made by Lisa, 2nd Margie - approved.

Charity – Kathy Musser, Kris Vanacore, Emilie Highley. Nothing to report.

❖ Minutes..

Hospitality – Emilie Highley. Kathy Musser broke a bone in her foot (OUCH!), a card will be sent. Spoke to Jim Davis - He spent several days in the Veteran's Hospital with an infection and is back at the Veteran's Facility - in Livermore - Room 119. Jim indicated that it appears that the infection has not totally cleared up and may be going back to the hospital for further treatment. His progress is slow. On a side note: He "HATES" the food! More updates to follow. Jim loves visits and phone calls.

Prieta Post Editor – Kat Hsueh. A question about sending out a hard copy of the Post, if so needs mailing addresses. Do the printers have the list of mailing addresses? Don't do a membership directory every year. Decision made to produce a flyer with calendar events on one side and a half page of 50th information. Kris Vanacore will work with Kat and Kevin to produce

Public Relations – Ken Iles. Submitted article to Panorama referencing Toys For Tots weather cancellation, Christmas Party and Year End Awards night, and the Gift Exchange Party. Group photo of award recipients accompanied the article.

Rallye – Bob Frosthalm. Nothing to report.

Safety – John Reed. All is safe as we begin the new year!

Social Media – Peter Ridgway. Sent out blast for 50th and will resend next week with Logo.

Tech – Peter Ridgway. Nothing to report yet. I've had a few discussions with most of the advertisers and expect to have at least 3 tech sessions during the year. And one cars and coffee get together.

Tours – Russ and Doris Britschgi. Reservations are coming in for the Reeds' 14th Annual Crow's Nest Tour and Lunch in Santa Cruz, Saturday, January 25.

Webmaster – Jim Turk. Maintenance work.

Multiple changes to the AX menus. Website upgrade was begun, and is nearly complete. After the site upgrade is finished, I will be updating the site with the 2020 information. The website suffered another meltdown which I repaired.

I have proposed that we use the 50th anniversary logo in the header of the website pages for 2020. A BRIEF discussion, and mayhem, will ensue. In case you missed my original proposal, I have attached an image of what the home page would look like with the 50th logo in place of the original logo. Motion made to add 50th Logo to home page by Steve Graham, Lisa 2nd – approved./
